

146 / D-48

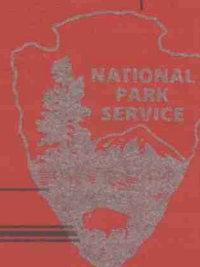

Place of Passages

Jewel Cave National Monument

Historic Resource Study

National Park Service
Midwest Region

Gail Evans-Hatch
and
Michael Evans-Hatch

PLEASE RETURN TO:

TECHNICAL INFORMATION CENTER
DENVER SERVICE CENTER
NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

The History and Cultural Resources of Jewel Cave National Monument

Including:

First Residents

- Exploration and Gold Discovery Displace Sioux, 1700s-1875
- Euro-Americans Come to Stay: Indians Dispossessed, 1875-1880s
- Establishing Roots: Harvesting Resources, 1850-1915
- Jewel Cave: Discovery and Development, 1890s-1908
- Jewel Cave Under the Forest Service, 1905-1927
- Opening Jewel Cave to Visitors, 1928-1930s, 1960s

Published by
National Park Service, Midwest Region, Omaha, Nebraska
2006

PLACE OF PASSAGES:

JEWEL CAVE NATIONAL MONUMENT HISTORIC RESOURCE STUDY

2006

by Gail Evans-Hatch
and
Michael Evans-Hatch
Evans-Hatch & Associates

published by
Midwestern Region
National Park Service
Omaha, Nebraska

Places of Passages:
Jewel Cave National Monument
HISTORIC RESOURCE STUDY

by

Gail E.H. Evans-Hatch and D. Michael Evans-Hatch

Evans-Hatch & Associates
Astoria, Oregon
2006

Recommended:

Diane Miller 2-6-06
Associate Regional Director, Midwest Region Date

Concurred:

Ed J. Sures 2-10-06
Superintendent, Jewel Cave National Monument Date

Approved:

Ernest Quintero 2-14-06
Regional Director, Midwest Region Date

